Patients asked for help as medical practice 'buckles' under workload

AXMINSTER Medical Practice is under unprecedented pressure and patients have been asked to help ease the strain.

The number of phone calls from patients to GPs is becoming "unsustainable" and reception staff are "buckling under the weight of their workload".

During a public meeting, organised by the practice and the patient participation group, practice manager Linda Coombs said that long-resisted change might be the only way forward.

The good news is that some of the changes may be easier to implement than anticipated.

The meeting was held in the Guildhall on Thursday July 9th to inform and seek the opinion of patients.

Axminster Medical Practice has just over 11,200 patients on its books, and the figure is rising.

Linda said: "We are under an unprecedented amount

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

of pressure in general practice.

"We aim to provide high quality, equitable and accessible service.

"I think up until now we have been quite good at that, but we are finding it more and more difficult.

"The number of phone calls from patients to GPs is becoming unsustainable, reception staff are buckling under the weight of their workload and dispensers are issuing more medication than ever before."

On Monday mornings alone, the practice can be 'bombarded' with almost 600 phone calls.

Linda said that practice management has long resisted the introduction of an automated phone system in which callers have to press specific buttons for specific services, and added: "But we may have to start using those things."

Dr Phil Taylor said: "I've been really anti an automated machine, but it may be the only option."

Patient participation group chairman Mike McAlpine held an impromptu show of hands poll to see how many in the audience would accept an automated phone system.

A large majority would, which Mr McAlpine said came as "a surprise".

To help ease the strain, patients were asked to play their part by being realistic as to what can be achieved during a ten-minute consultation, ordering medication at least 48 hours in advance, ordering medication online, making appointments online and avoiding (if possible) early morning calls for appointments and phone requests.

One person said he would be more than happy to book appointments online, but had not been aware of the possibility.

Linda admitted the practice had been criticised for not advertising the service well, and explained why: "We have done a big song and dance about other things, but they have become a monster we couldn't control, (like phoning your GP).

"But we want to put it right and will even set up online tutorial days for patients in the practice."

Earlier in the meeting she touched on the long-term plans for the practice, saying it will remain where it is but might add rooms.

Using Nutrition to support those with cancer"

Thursday 23rd July 2.30pm at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre
Come along to our FREE talks

WISHING WELL, Axminster's cancer support group, provides a supportive and safe place for those affected by cancer and their carers to meet every Thursday afternoon, to make new friends, gather useful information and share experiences. We have recently been holding free talks and workshops on a variety of subjects. On Thursday 23rd July, participants will have the opportunity to learn how nutrition can be used to support those with cancer. These talks are aimed at anyone who currently has or has recovered from cancer and/or their carers. The talk will cover healthy diet choices for disease prevention and maintaining optimum health, the use of supplements, the importance of maintaining an optimum acid/alkaline balance in the diet for health, food intolerances and how to identify them, vitamin and mineral levels amongst other things. There will also be some healthy recipes on offer. Elizabeth Bray, who is delivering the talk, is a registered nutritional therapist and has a holistic approach to the individual. She is the regional co-ordinator for and a member of the British Association for Applied Nutrition and Nutritional Therapy. We continue to fund raise for Wishing Well and hope that soon we will be able to offer even more facilities to support those affected by cancer and their carers. We would like to be able to offer free complementary therapies alongside a continuing program of talks. We also have a wide selection of books available to borrow and we hope to expand this collection. Watch this space! If you are interested in helping to run this group or would like to support it in any way we'd love to hear from you. The group meets at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre, Hanover House, Chard Street, Axminster. Call 01297 32331 for more information or to book a place or just come along on the day.

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

EAST DEVON Plans to hand over ownership of town hall

A DECISION to transfer ownership of Seaton Town Hall to the town council could be taken this week.

East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Cabinet will meet on July 15th to decide if the venue should be transferred to Seaton Town Council. EDDC, Seaton Town Council, Seaton's Voice and Seaton Museum have worked together for more than 18 months and delivered a five-phase plan.

A Cabinet report explained: "By transferring the building into local ownership there is a possibility it can be modernised to provide a full council suite, entertainment and community hub along with an improved museum.

"All of these would be attractive to residents and visitors, and provide an attraction for the town centre." The proposal on the agenda is that EDDC "transfers Seaton Town Hall to Seaton Town Council at nil consideration" i.e. at no cost to the town council.

The report said: "EDDC can dispose of its freehold interest for less than best value where it is in the interest of helping secure the promotion or improvement of the economic, social or environmental well-being of its area."

In 2010, community group Seaton's Voice approached EDDC and offered to take on a lease and the management of those parts of Seaton Town Hall not let to the town council and museum.

Last year a working party of councillors, Seaton Voice directors and museum representatives was formed to draw up a plan for the future of Seaton Town Hall.

The five-phase plan would start with the town council and Seaton's Voice switching floors straight away.

A public consultation on the proposed refurbishment would follow, with a grand opening of the new-look venue in September 2016.

From the editor's chair Bubbly send-off for Bob

I'VE often written in this column how fortunate we are to live so close to the Exeter-Waterloo railway line and, generally speaking, what an excellent service it is.

I take the train to London sometimes two or three times a week and have come to appreciate it more. The trains are usually on time and the service on board is courteous and friendly on most occasions.

However, like many others who take the train from Axminster regularly, I am going to miss ticket clerk Bob Driscoll who has retired after a career spanning 50 years.

If there was an award for Britain's most helpful railway official, Bob would surely be in the running. Nothing was ever too much trouble for him and he was always anxious to make sure all railway travellers were treated fairly and politely.

It wasn't so many months ago that I nearly got into a fight when I jumped to Bob's defence when he was treated in an appalling manner by an obnoxious toffee-nosed ignoramus. You know the type. Those who treat anyone in the service industry with total disdain. I can't stand them. Bob took the abuse in a calm and respectful manner; me on the other hand - I was close to lamping him one.

Bob was so highly thought-of by the customers of Axminster station that on his last day at work a number of them, accompanied by the Mayor, Councillor Douglas Hull, turned up at the station with a bottle of bubbly to toast him.

Bob was not only a credit to British Rail in an age when the service industry leaves much to be desired in many sectors, but also a credit to Axminster.

He will be much missed!

HONITON Beehive awarded charity status

A LANDMARK agreement has finally been reached for the company behind the Beehive to become a charity.

Honiton Community Complex, which has run the centre since it opened in April last year, was officially granted charitable status last week.

The long-awaited decision will enable the company directors to apply for grants and sponsorship, clearing the way for future investment in the community centre.

Honiton Town Council agreed to grant the company a 10-year lease back in March, but the deal was dependent upon the directors obtaining the charitable status. Now that the Charities Commission has approved the switch, the matter can finally be laid to rest.

Barry Simmonds, acting chairman of the Honiton Community Complex board of directors, said the charity status "recognises and endorses what the Beehive is all about: providing value for the community".

OTTERY ST MARY Last chance to save hospital beds

A FINAL plea has been issued for Ottery St Mary's community hospital beds to be saved, with health chiefs poised to make a final decision this week.

Town councillors have issued a rallying call to members of the community ahead of the crucial meeting, where commissioners could choose to transfer the beds elsewhere in East Devon and close the minor injuries unit.

Civic leaders say a "groundswell of local action" could reverse the decision, even at this late stage.

Ahead of the meeting on Thursday, July 16th, Ottery Town Council has called on members of the community to "help save the hospital" before it's too late.

Councillor Glyn Dobson, the Mayor of Ottery, said: "The town council has written to Hugo Swire MP to seek his urgent intervention. I ask everyone in each community that will be affected by these cuts to do the same as quickly as possible."

"A groundswell of local action might just win the day."

Last call of campaign to keep hospital beds

A FINAL rallying cry to keep in-patient beds at Axminster Hospital has been issued.

The governing body of Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (NEW Devon CCG) will meet on Thursday and is expected to make a final decision regarding in-patient beds in community hospitals.

The original proposal to concentrate the number of in-patient beds to a smaller number of hospitals proved extremely unpopular in Axminster.

Campaign group Axminster Hospital Action Group (AHAG) was set up and has worked closely with Axminster Hospital League of Friends.

Dr James Vann has been at the forefront of the campaign and the stakeholder group set up by NEW Devon CCG.

He referred to Thursday as D-Day for Axminster Hospital and explained why there has been a delay: "The board members of the eastern division of the CCG planned to make a decision about local in-patient services in their community hospitals at the end of May following a long and extended consultation process.

"However, following legal advice, they were advised not to make such a decision as too many of the GP board members also worked for Northern Devon

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

Healthcare Trust (NDHT), the main provider.

"The implication was that they would be biased. The Eastern Board then referred the in-patient beds decision to the governing body.

"It is hard to see how the GPs elected to represent our local views at CCG level could not be trusted to make such a decision on their own and it has been known for some time throughout the Transforming Community Services (TCS) and consultation process that these doctors also worked for NDHT as well as being GPs."

In view of the strength of feeling in Axminster, and the other towns affected, the CCG formed a stakeholder group consisting of representatives from the five East Devon towns with community hospitals, with an independent chairman in Sir John Evans.

Dr Vann said: "The result of these meetings was that Sir John Evans' independent report stating that the stakeholder group overwhelmingly recommends to the CCG in-patient beds in all five towns on a temporary basis of some one to two years while further data was sought.

"The CCGs original proposal was for the immediate closure of beds in two of the five towns - Axminster and Ottery St Mary.

"This proposal was considered in detail by the stakeholder group but was thought to be an unsuitable option by a large majority.

"The five towns and hospitals being discussed are Sidmouth, Honiton, Ottery St Mary, Seaton and Axminster."

Summarising the situation, he said: "There is a considerable demand from our patients to have a community hospital with beds as well as many other facilities.

"This is clearly a reflection of our community being very rural and the most distant from Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital.

"The local GPs are all in favour of beds at our local hospital, the patients are strongly in favour; let's hope the GPs running the CCG and the health services in Devon are listening.

"On behalf of the patients in the Axminster area I hope that the CCG governors take heed of the advice of Sir John Evans and the stakeholder group and choose their preferred option and plan for the future.

"We should know more after the meeting this Thursday.

"I will continue my efforts together with Steve Holt and the League of Friends and the AHAG team to ensure beds are maintained at Axminster."

'Novelty' dogs a hit at cricket club fete

AXMINSTER Town Cricket Club's Summer Fete had a distinct canine theme.

Held on Sunday, July 5th, traditional activities and attractions were plentiful, but the novelty dog show again proved to be a real hit.

The club's cricket development officer, Andrew Moulding, summed up by saying: "The ever popular Karizma Majorettes gave a marvellous display, there was a bouncy castle, Michelle's face painting, Geoff's tombola, Sue's cake stall and a number of other side shows.

"However, the highlight of the afternoon was the novelty dog show, with between 10 and 20 extremely well-behaved dogs in each of the ten classes.

"There were rosettes in each class and the best dog in show was Bonnie, with owner Meryl Bastin.

"The fete was blessed with extremely kind weather, as just as the fun was over it began raining cats and dogs."

LED's fun-filled family day which took place at Ocean Exmouth last week was a huge success!

The local community came out in force to support LED when they opened the doors to Ocean on Sunday morning.

Excitement had been mounting in the week leading up to the event on social media with hundreds of people on Facebook and Twitter confirming they would be attending.

Entry to the soft play area was free all day and visitors were offered a free game of the newly installed Mad Game bowling.

Last, but not least, was an opportunity for visitors to take a tour of the stunning Ocean Suite and enjoy a cream tea on the terrace whilst admiring the breath-taking view.

Well over 1,000 children climbed and clambered their way around the enormous soft play, while their parents relaxed and enjoyed tasty treats from the Ocean Deck café.

LED's chief executive Peter Gilpin was on hand all day and said "We were bowled over by the enthusiasm and support from the local community.

"Everyone was amazed by the first floor soft play and café and those who had never previously experienced the Ocean Suite were extremely impressed.

"The opportunities it offers for private parties as well as corporate events make it a unique venue within East Devon.

"The team at Ocean have worked tirelessly to ensure a warm welcome for the local community and we look forward to welcoming everyone back."

Duty manager Jon Burden was delighted with the turnout: "Yesterday was a proud day for the whole team at LED.

"This iconic building was seen complete for the first time, in its best possible light and tremendously well supported by the people of Exmouth and East Devon.

"We look forward to welcoming both holiday makers and locals over the coming months."

New book explores Rousdon history

A NEW book on the history of Rousdon will be launched at Serendip bookshop in Broad Street, Lyme Regis, 6pm on Wednesday, July 22nd.

The book "To Buy a Whole Parish; Rousdon and the Peek Family" is written Nicky Campbell who has been researching the history of the Rousdon Estate for more than 10 years. It gives an insight into the life of Sir Henry Peek MP, an extraordinarily wealthy and practical man who held decided views on why and how his wealth should benefit those poorer than himself. Under his ownership, the estate included a farm, church, cottages and lodges, as well as his own mansion, observatories, a museum and menagerie with emus and a giraffe.

The book also looks at ownership of the estate after Sir Henry died, passing it on to his son Sir Cuthbert, and then grandson Sir Wilfred, who led a lavish lifestyle in both Devon and London up until the First World War, after which he chose to spend more time in the capital.

Following Sir Wilfred's death, his son Frances inherited the estate but immediately sold it, which had disastrous results for the staff and surrounding area.

The book contains details not only of the Peeks family life but also those of the workers.

MORE than 100 people gathered for the formal opening of East Devon Beekeepers' Association's (EDBKA) purpose-built apiary at Hunthay, near Axminster.

The opening took place on Saturday, July 4th and saw, among other things, guest of honour Neil Parish MP plant a tree for bees, with the help of local councillor Andrew Moulding.

Members first moved their club hives to the old orchard at Hunthay in 2010.

Since then, owners Bill and Jenny Newbery have built a facility specifically designed for beekeeping activities.

Jenny, who is herself a member of the association, said: "Over 100 members and spouses enjoyed a sociable evening amongst the newly re-planted orchard at Hunthay.

"The evening also featured trees for bees, and as well as planting one tree, tree vouchers were distributed to members – funded by a legacy from Mike Craythorne, a former member of the association."

EDBKA members meet monthly in Kilminster Village Hall during the winter and more often at the apiary during the summer.

Property auctions

SYMONDS & Sampson's Axminster office has completed successful property auctions in a short space of time.

On June 24th, Yarde Farm at Churchill went under the hammer.

The farm had been in the Perring family for more than 100 years, but had been empty for the last eight years.

The guide price of up to £500,000 was exceeded as the gavel fell at £555,000 to local buyers.

Just a week later, the company offered Thorncombe Farmhouse for sale, with a guide price of £280,000-£300,000. The property was sold for £306,000.

A two-bedroom bungalow at Meadowbank in Kilminster sold for £224,000 against a guide price of £200,000.

The company's next auction in Axminster is scheduled for October 8th.

Farmers' sports shirts sponsored

■ AXMINSTER Young Farmers' Club has taken delivery of sponsored sports shirts courtesy of Thomas Westcott Chartered Accountants.

The club was officially presented with the sports kit by Axminster staff member Tom Stuckey on Monday, July 6th.

Stuart Carrington, partner at the accountants' Axminster Office, said "Thomas Westcott has always had a close involvement with the farming community in the local area and in particular Axminster Young Farmers' Club.

"Not only does the club (which is a registered charity in its own right) improve the lives of young people in our rural community, but it also does a fantastic job raising money for other worthy charities.

"Thomas Westcott was pleased to be able to help the club."

Club chairman Jamie Bennett said: "Axminster YFC plays a wide range of sports with other clubs throughout East Devon and have desperately needed new shirts for some time now.

"We would like to thank Thomas Westcott for their generous sponsorship – it has made all the difference."

Merger creates Early Years Centre

A MERGER of pre-schools, Rainbow Under 5's Playgroup and Stepping Stones Nursery has led to the formation of Axminster Early Years Centre.

The new entity will be part of Axminster Primary School and open its doors on September 3rd.

Axminster Early Years Centre will welcome pre-school children from two years of age, and promises "new and exciting provision making the most of the fantastic facilities available".

Centre manager Clare Male said: "The early years centre will be part of Axminster Primary School and this will provide seamless transition for the children.

"Staff have exciting plans to provide interesting and challenging learning opportunities for the children with mud kitchens, water walls, music walls, pirate ships and a whole range of other exciting activities."

Parents will be able to choose from mornings, afternoons or lunch time sessions or any combination of these so that child-care can be flexible.

Clare added: "The centre will also provide a range of services for families including toddler groups, parenting classes, informal coffee mornings, and even baby massage".

Acorn Multi-Academy Trust (of which Axminster Primary School is part) executive head Andrea Rice said: "We are very excited about this new development for the children and families in Axminster, as it will provide high quality child care, exciting learning opportunities and a range of services to support families.

"This is just what is needed to get our children off to the best possible start."

Did you see this object?

AN AXMINSTER resident has asked for help in identifying a mysterious flying object.

Allan Howlings was out walking at about 8.50pm on Thursday July 9th along the river at Weycroft.

He explained: "I happened to look up in the sky above a line of trees on the opposite side of the river which would have been looking towards the Cloakham Lawn area.

"It was only visible for a few seconds before disappearing from sight behind the line of trees. "It looked black and an irregular shape as per the photograph."

He took a photo, and said: "This has not been photoshopped and is a genuine picture. Any ideas?"

Tesco to hold fundraising day

TESCO's new community champion in Axminster promises a fun and action-packed Summer Charity Fundraising Day at the store on Saturday, 18th July.

The aims of the day are to have fun and raise as much money as possible for Tesco's charities of the year, Diabetes UK and the British Heart Foundation.

Community champion Rob Cope outlined the plan by saying: "The fun and games for all the family will begin at 10am until around 3pm.

"There will be various stalls including vintage clothes, bric a brac, home-made cakes and treats.

"We will also be selling ice creams if you need cooling down.

"There is also new and nearly new clothing for sale and a popular raffle.

"Nathan Gough will be our DJ, Paul Haywood will show off his balloon skills and there will also be a baton twirling display.

"The star of the show could well be the tombola, with nearly 200 super prizes up for grabs.

"The fun event will also give our local community the chance to meet the man behind the event, Paul Jennings, our new charity champion.

"All proceeds will go to our charities of the year, Diabetes UK and the British Heart Foundation."

Mayor apologies over 'political comment'

SEATON mayor Tony Woodman has apologised to town councillors for not removing a political comment from his monthly report.

His July report was circulated as part of the town council agenda for July 6th, and included a sentence about the NHS saying: "With millions of pounds having to be saved, thanks to the Tory government, there will obviously be an impact on local services and I think we, as a council, need to keep a very close eye on what is being proposed in the near future."

During the meeting, it was pointed out that it was a political remark, and Councillor Woodman apologised saying: "It should have come out [the sentence]."

Lifeboat week success

by Kevin Fahey

THE Seaton, Beer & District Lifeboat week has been proclaimed a big success.

While the figures are still being worked out secretary Wendy Cummins said the week of activities looks like raising over £1,000 for funds.

"It has been a very busy week and we have had good turn-outs at the duck race, the cream tea and the two Brew For the Crews," said Mrs Cummins.

"The nice weather has helped us and we are well on target to raise over £1,000."

While the Beer Lifeboat Week is now over fund-raising goes on and the local branch will be out in force again in Seaton this Saturday (July 18th).

"We will be in the square and anyone who can help with rattling a bucket would be more than welcome," added Mrs Cummins.

Zumba troupe entertain

■ JM DANCEFIT founder Johanna Morgan and her troupe were asked to put on a summer fete Zumba performance at Seaton Primary School for the fourth year running. Members of the JM DanceFit Seaton Little and Junior Starz crew put on a spectacular display on July 4th at the school's annual summer fete. Johanna said: "I was so incredibly proud of all of my Seaton Little and Junior Starz and their display. I would like to congratulate all the children on their fantastic performance which was full of energy, big smiles and most importantly lots of fun." # Street food market serves up tastes from around the world

CUBAN, Spanish, Persian and Caribbean dishes were among those on the menu at the inaugural Seaton Eats Boutique.

The street food market is the brainchild of Colyford resident Eleanor Carr, who got inspired when attending a similar event in France.

Jubilee Gardens was transformed into a temporary restaurant on the evening of Friday, July 3rd under the motto of 'Taste the World'.

It was the first of two events, the second to take place on the first Friday of August.

Eleanor had planned a series of the three, but had to cancel the one in June.

She explained: "To cut a long story short, there was a 'hoo-ha' over gaining permission for me to put on my street food market - but permission was finally given on June 18th.

"It is something I would like to get going and establish as regular summer event in Seaton.

"A big thank you to everyone who supported the event in various ways.

"It gave me a lot of encouragement."

Pirates and princesses at church fete

■ FUNDRAISERS: Mental health charity YoungMinds benefited from funds raised at the church fete

FROM posh frocks and tiaras to eye patches and swords, the children of Colyton went all out for the pirates and princesses theme at St Andrew's church fete. The fete, opened by Colyton's own Captain Hook, was held on the church green on Saturday, with a variety of stalls, traditional games and entertainment, including the Chantry Kingers, Six Days and Wyld Morris dancers. Children took part in a fancy dress parade with the Reverend Hilary Dawson presenting prizes to the best dressed. Even ponies from Munchkins Miniature Shetland Rescue, based in Southleigh, dressed for the occasion. Money raised on the day was split between church funds and YoungMinds, the national charity for young people's mental health.

Long-serving heads exit with honours

MORE than 300 years of service by 12 headteachers in Devon have been celebrated by county education chiefs.

The leader of Devon County Council (DCC), John Hart, and the Cabinet Member for Schools, James McInnes, Chief Executive Phil Norrey and Head of Education and Learning, Sue Clarke, hosted the celebration for heads who left their schools during the current academic year after a lifetime of service.

Most were retiring but others were going on to work in other areas.

In all they have spent 324 years educating children across the county.

In East Devon, Nigel Tancock spent 38 years teaching and retired as head of Woodbury Primary.

Caroline Bond from Littleton Primary in Honiton and Patricia Morris from Rockbeare Primary each gave 26 years' service while Paul Evans from Colyton Grammar School has 18 years' service in Devon schools.

They were all amongst the heads invited to a special garden party and buffet supper in Exeter.

Mr Hart told them: "Devon has a lot to be proud of – particularly in its education service. "My sincere thanks go to you all on behalf of Devon County Council and the children of Devon for all the work you have done and the results you have achieved despite the low national funding of our schools."

He said he wished those who were retiring a long and happy retirement and every success to those who were moving on to new ventures.

Dr Norrey said he wanted to thank the heads on behalf of the thousands of children who had passed through their care over the years.

"It is heads and teachers in schools who make a difference and you can look back with pride on a job well done, he said."

■ LONG SERVICE: Paul Evans, Caroline Bond, James McInnes, Sue Clarke, Patricia Morris and Nigel Tancock

'Read Easy' with Axe Valley Community Choir

THE AXE Valley Community Choir was delighted, recently, to donate £500 to the Axminster and Seaton branch of 'Read Easy'.

'Read Easy' Axminster and Seaton was set up about a year ago and is going from strength to strength. It provides one-to-one support for those who have, for whatever reason, found reading difficult in the past.

It has a small committee and an experienced co-ordinator who matches up readers with trained coaches.

The number of readers is increasing steadily with some students almost ready to complete the course and progress to a 'moving ahead' programme.

'Read Easy' coaches and readers use the 'Yes we can read' manual designed to help anyone of any age. It is a free, friendly and flexible approach to helping people change their lives.

The cheque, presented to chairperson Jean Bowmer by Shirley Williams, chairperson of the AVCC, will be used to buy reading books and resources, and to help train reading coaches.

The choir has also been able to donate £500 to Whitford Village Hall, home of the choir, to help towards the cost of installing a defibrillator and training for its use.

In addition to these worthwhile community causes, the choir devoted a recent practice evening to raising funds for the Nepal Disaster Fund. Two members of the choir, John and Hazel Platt, whose daughter was seconded by Plant International to Nepal because of her experience in 'Earthquake Emergency First Response', gave a talk on the work being done in Nepal by Non-Government Organisations and the United Nations. A giant raffle was held with dozens of donated prizes and with Edward Jacobs, the musical director, playing a medley of piano pieces during the tea break. A splendid sum of £353 was raised. The choir committee then decided to top this up from funds to £600.

The AVCC prides itself on its charitable giving and all concert performances are given freely to support fundraising activities.

Clinical Commissioning Group not fit

■ NEXT Thursday, July 16th, the governing body of New Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) will have the opportunity to either accept or reject the recommendations of a report written by Sir John Evans.

This report, the result of much hard work on the part of town representatives and County Councillors chosen by the CCG themselves, recommends maintaining the provision of inpatient beds and minor injuries units in all five community hospitals in this area (Axminster, Honiton, Ottery St Mary, Seaton and Sidmouth).

The CCG have purposely and wilfully withheld this crucial report from Devon County Council's Health and Wellbeing Scrutiny Committee. It is not particularly easy to find on their website either.

The CCG have spent vast amounts of money on a public consultation process which showed quite clearly that people want to keep the provision of inpatient beds in their community hospitals.

The CCG have consistently and callously ignored this point of view and, therefore, the wishes of the very people they are supposed to serve. Now like 'autocrats protecting secret knowledge' they will, no doubt, cynically reject the recommendations of a group they set up and whose members they carefully selected.

They wish to sweep under the carpet any idea of keeping inpatient beds in community hospitals because they have other plans. Obviously a case of 'Doctor knows best'.

The responsibility for a decision on the report's recommendations was passed up to the CCG Governing Body by the Eastern Locality Board (talk about top heavy bureaucracy) originally to give them time to collect yet 'more' information. We learn now, however, that the reason was that a conflict of interest had arisen. Anyone curious as to the nature of this conflict of interest could do no better than to look at the CCG register of interests to see the common thread running through it.

One might rightly think that a hospital without inpatient beds is not actually a hospital at all. Without such beds it might then become a building full of outpatient clinics where you get your feet sorted out and told you need a hearing aid etc. Such services in this day would, without a doubt, be contracted out to private companies. One could further ask who these companies might be. Someone is about to profit from the wholesale removal of inpatient beds from community hospitals and it is painfully obvious it is not the general public. Our health and well being is not safe in the hands of the unbelievably arrogant New Devon Clinical Commissioning Group.

Residents cleared Umborne roads

■ FURTHER to your article in Pulman's Weekly News of 26th June, regarding comments made by Colyton Town Councillors about the state of the roads in Umborne.

I would like to point out that on three separate occasions up to twelve Umborne residents took spades and shovels and spent a total of 80 man hours clearing the drains and ditches near Lily-lake Farm and Yardbury Farm, not Devon CC Highways as stated in that article.

We would also like to point out that the road in question is in Colyton Parish but the majority of the helpers were from Shute Parish. We were commended by Highways and County Councillor Andrew Moulding and have been assured by Highways that this area will be repaired this year (Yardbury Farm) and this financial year (Lilylake Farm).

Urban waste collection system: it's a trial

■ I DID appreciate the way that you reported the trial of alternative schedules of waste collection at Feniton and the way you mentioned the Council's approach as explained by Cllr Chubb.

Just to answer Mr Lee in your View from Honiton, July 7th, I would like to be very clear that this is a test to see if a new collection system works in an urban environment in Exmouth as well as in Feniton.

We made much of this approach in the Conservative election campaign and the aim is to respond to the strong demand to recycle cardboard and plastic which at present often goes into the wheelie bin.

We will have a weekly collection of food waste, glass, plastics and cardboard, and if nappy pads, incontinence pads and sanitary towels all go into "clinical waste" fortnightly collections, then we aim to find out if the reduced residual landfill waste can be collected every three weeks.

The approach has been successful in other places and we want to find out if it works here for the benefit of our residents. Let's hope it suits us all.

Thanks for MSA Trust garden opening support

■ We would like to publish our thanks to all the people who came to our open garden for the MSA Trust on June 27th at Socks Orchard, Smallridge.

We raised £1,408 (so far – post event publicity last year brought in even more donations).

The afternoon was a great success, made possible by all the kind people who, once again, without being asked, stepped forward with offers of help and worked tirelessly.

Anne Swithinbank (renowned garden broadcaster and journalist), opened the event, and she and her husband, John, spent the afternoon answering gardening questions.

Dave Wicken and Steve Holt serenaded us with garden-related songs.

There were four vintage cars, garden sculpture by Millin Metalcraft, plant stall, bees, art by Dave Wicken, a raffle and scrumptious cream teas.

As a small charity that receives no government support, the MSA Trust relies entirely on charitable donations to continue our work.

Without such generosity they would be unable to employ the specialist MSA nurses who cover the length of the country and each offer symptom management advice and support to over 60 families each week.

MSA Trust would also be unable to run their many regional support groups, provide information to those caring for a loved one with MSA, or fund medical research to find both the cause of and cure for this devastating disease.

The money raised at this event will really make a difference, so heartfelt thanks to all the people who worked so hard to make it such a success, and to those who came and/or donated.

HILARY AND MICHAEL PRITCHARD,

Same councillors

■ WITH regards to the letter by Vic Raskin in the Pulman's View From (June 30th), for us scrapping East Devon District Council would have little effect because our district councillor is also a county councillor and our county councillor is a town councillor in nearby Axminster. We would just end up with the same local politicians making the same decisions, but wearing different hats. Local democracy would be increased if a person could stand as either a District Councillor or a County Councillor, but not both.

Love the great outdoors? Adopt a Somerset path!

PEOPLE who regularly use rights of way in Somerset are invited to help keep routes open and accessible for all under a new adopt-a-path scheme. Somerset County Council's rights of way team is interested in hearing from anyone willing to adopt a public footpath, bridleway, restricted byway or a Byway Open to All Traffic (BOAT). Volunteers are asked to simply walk, cycle or ride their path as often as possible, report any problems to their local adopt-a-path co-ordinator, and help keep signs, gates and stiles clear of overgrown vegetation.

Routes for adoption could range from urban paths of 50m to wooded trails several miles long.

In many parts of Somerset, local Parish Path Liaison Officers and parish councils already carry out a similar role by walking paths and carrying out maintenance. The adopt-a-path scheme looks to build on this.

Cllr David Fothergill, Somerset County Council's Cabinet Member with responsibility for Rights of Way, said: "Somerset has one of the largest rights of way networks in the country with around 3,800 miles of paths, including 15,000 gates and 11,000 stiles.

"The adopt-a-path scheme is a fantastic opportunity for community-minded residents to help us keep an eye on the network and make sure all paths are accessible.

"We already have some local parishes who do this and they have been a great success. So whether you already use a path regularly or are looking for an excuse to get out more, we would really appreciate your help. Please get in touch if you have questions or want to find out more."

As well as the obvious physical health benefits to regular exercise and carrying out basic maintenance work, volunteering is also good for your mental health.

Cllr Anna Groskop, Somerset County Council's Cabinet Member for HR, Health and Transformation, said: "Adopting a path is a brilliant way to keep fit. By walking, cycling or riding several times a week you will be giving your health a huge boost, whatever your age or ability.

"I would encourage anyone who loves the outdoors and can spare a few hours here and there to join this rewarding scheme and help give something back to their community."

All adopt-a-path volunteers will be loaned equipment they might need such as hi-vis jackets, gloves and secateurs.

Anyone can get involved in this project. You can check if a route you wish to adopt is a public right of way by checking an Ordnance Survey map or the Interactive Mapping at www.somerset.gov.uk/rightsofway

East Devon artists in Beer exhibition

A GROUP of East Devon artists and friends will be staging their first exhibition together in Beer this week.

Eve Cox from Seaton, Beer-based Lynn Ransom and Sandy Winskill from Musbury will launch their week-long show in the Bomb Shelter, which is owned by the Beer Heritage Centre, on Saturday, July 18th.

"We have all exhibited before but this is the first time we have come together to show our work," said Eve.

"I met Sandy at the Arts Society of Seaton 12 years ago and we have exhibited together at Taunton and Ilminster and got to know Lynn as we have a mutual interest.

"All three of us have different styles so there will be plenty of variety for people to see."

Entry to the exhibition, which will be open from 10am-4.30pm every day, is free and all paintings will be for sale plus there will also be a selection of hand-made greeting cards made by the three women.

EAST Devon artists Eve Cox and Lynn Ransom

"We paint for pleasure and we are just looking to cover our costs," said Lynn. "We just really enjoy what we do."

The Bomb Shelter can be found towards the bottom end of Fore Street just around the corner from the Jimmy Green Marine shop and before the Seafood Platter.

West of England Laser Centre

Q. I HAVE a mole next to my nose which I have often thought about having removed. I am going on a cruise in August to celebrate my 50th wedding anniversary and wondered if I would be able to have the treatment before then?

A. Yes, you have plenty of time to have this treatment before your cruise. Initially you would need to come for a Consultation with our Surgeon on a Monday evening or a Wednesday afternoon at the Nuffield Hospital in Taunton. You can make an appointment by telephoning 01823 331773 or by emailing lasercentre@lineone.net. Following the consultation we can book you in for your treatment, usually within a couple of weeks, if you wish to go ahead.

Q. I have always wanted to have this done .. but always been a little nervous how painful is the treatment?

A. Please do not be nervous, this treatment is very painless and straight forward. Our Surgeon will inject a small amount of local anaesthetic into the area prior to treatment. The laser is very precise and targets only the mole itself and does not affect any of the surrounding skin. When the anaesthetic wears off you may feel a slight discomfort or stinging, this is fairly mild but if you do wish to take paracetamol this will help.

Q. During the cruise I will be exposed to the sun, will I still be able to do this following treatment?

A. We would always recommend using a high factor sun cream whenever you are exposed to the sun, especially on the treated area. You would need to wait 2 or 3 weeks for the skin to be fully healed before you go into the sun but the high factor sun cream will not only protect the more sensitive, treated area but will also help prevent further sun damage.

Beauty Spot or Mole?

Some moles are more attractive than others, if yours is bothering you, why not have it quickly and painlessly removed by laser?

Axminster care home wins award for being rated in the top twenty in the South West

TWICE voted in the top 20 of the Care Home Awards, beating 2370 other homes in the area, The Koppers is a warm, welcoming and friendly residential home specializing in the care of people with dementia.

Nestled in tranquil settings in the heart of the picturesque village of Kilminster, The Koppers provides the highest level of care for elderly people, comfortable accommodation with beautiful views, excellent facilities and expertly trained staff.

We provide a friendly, comfortable home for the confused retired. We aim to promote independence, privacy and dignity within a therapeutic and caring environment.

The owners of the Koppers are constantly striving to provide residents with the highest quality care, providing dedicated and compassionate staff experienced in the care of elderly people with complex care needs, long standing mental health problems and severe communication disabilities.

"We pride ourselves on providing excellent care for our residents. We are over the moon to have received this award for a second time - reassuring the families and residents, the village of Kilminster and surrounding areas that our staff and home provides a great service, and I would personally like to congratulate them for the fantastic work they do".

It is a wonderful, wonderful achievement and it's great to have received such recognition two years running" owner Vivian comments.

"There has been such negative representation of residential homes in the news but we are a small home that takes pride in offering the best care and a happy, home from home environment and it's nice to have the award to validate that."

We are planning a summer event on Sunday 26th July between 2.30pm and 5.30pm, to celebrate our award with residents, their families, friends and local community.

All our care staff are professionally trained to a minimum of NVQ2 and they receive on-going training in First Aid, Health and Safety, Food Hygiene, Lifting and Handling and Dementia Care.

We have an excellent team of bright and happy carers and ancillary staff dedicated to making The Priory a really nice place to live.

Each resident is allocated a key carer who has a special responsibility for ensuring their comfort and well-being, who is there to listen if problems arise and to act as a channel of communication in case of need.

Depending on the accommodation we have available at the time of an enquiry, we can offer full-time residential care, convalescent care and respite care. Day care is at the discretion of the Manager. Length of stay can vary from a few days to months or years. Enquiries should be addressed to the Manager, Telephone 01404 812939.

The Priory has a sister company called the Priory Home Care Service, bringing Care Services directly into peoples' homes.

We understand that many elderly people prefer to stay in the familiarity of their own home surroundings, for as long as possible, before entering The Priory for full 24 hour care and support.

And we know that it can be hard, and that sometimes you just need a little help.

Or sometimes, a lot of help. Or we can just come along for a chat, a cup of tea and a bit of company.

That's why we provide professionally trained Care

Staff who can visit your home and help you with all kinds of things. A few of them being: Personal Care, Washing & Dressing, Getting up & Going to bed, Shopping, Companionship, Cooking, Household chores, Medication, Socialising, Catheter Care and Light domestic duties.

This is a beautifully decorated lounge area with views of the garden where residents may spend time with visiting loved one, or simply relax. Staff at Oak Lodge are also supporting the national initiative of Dignity Champions. ## A dance through the archives

BEEHIVE audience are invited to take a stroll down memory lane.

Next Saturday, July 18th sees the special informal Dance theatre piece, 'Archive' performed by Exeter based Dance Lab at 7.30pm in The Beehive. The company invites the audience to bring a little piece of their family history with them if they wish, to share between the three different animated stories within the show. This could be an object or photo, something that evokes a particular memory for you. This charming dementia friendly show is described as funny, evocative and accessible.

A recent audience member said: "I was enthralled and delighted from the beginning. I loved the objects and the way the performers invited us to a shared experience. It worked so subtly. Little gestures described a response (tripe and onions come to mind) - that in turn reminded me of smells and experiences (lumpy custard) from my own past that called for further remembering. I loved the things that came up afterwards that were illuminated by the prompts from your show. A seasick trip to Lundy island, rolling boat, lifeboat stations, parents... where were they? Somewhere. My mother cooking. A workshop full of tools, each tool known through use, through handling - beauty in observing a man working when at one with the process, absorbed and concentrated.

"It was wonderful. Thank you!"

Popular president Trevor entertains on Beer Wurlitzer

THE 2015 PROGRAMME of Beer Wurlitzer shows continued with another outstanding afternoon of music by Trevor Bolshaw, popular President of the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer and long-time resident of Honiton.

Trevor's programme of nostalgic music was wide ranging from Greig's 'Wedding Day' at Trolldhaugen' and Tchaikovsky's 'Swan Lake' to medleys by Irving Berlin and Fats Waller. He also played the light music associated with such greats as Leslie Taff, Eric Coates, Reginald King, Dudley Savage and Nigel Ogden. His final sequence of music was from the Ivor Novello show 'Glamorous Night' which Queen Mary, who was an ardent music fan, attended at Drury Lane in 1935.

Trevor is an internationally acclaimed concert and broadcasting organist, who began studying music at the age of nine with the well-known Midlands broadcasting organist Leslie Taff. His concert career has taken him to the USA on many occasions and he has broadcast on the well-known BBC Radio 2 programme 'The Organist Entertains' as well as on Radio Devon and Radio Bristol. The audience appreciated his expertise on the Wurlitzer and also the excellent refreshments provided by his wife Mary. Another opportunity to hear Trevor play will be on 5 September at 2.00pm at St. Gregory's Church, Seaton.

On Saturday, August 8th, the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer are proud to announce that one of the world's top theatre organists, Simon Gledhill, will be playing on the historic Beer Wurlitzer. His visit to Beer is a great privilege and a large audience is anticipated. The show will be held at 2.00pm at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ - admittance is £7.00 on the door, children free, and includes interval refreshments. For further information please phone 01297 24892 or visit www.beer-wurlitzer.org.uk.

Bright as a Button

ILMINSTER Arts Centre is running a craft workshop with a regional theme on Thursday, July 23rd when tutor Carole Cooke will be teaching the art of making Dorset buttons.

This regional style of button has been associated with Dorset since the 17th-century, and they were a significant cottage industry in the country until the mid 19th-century, when machine-made buttons replaced them.

Historically there were all sorts of stylistic variations of the Dorset Button, and on this course participants will learn how to use threads, embroidery stitches and beads to create their own unique version. Finished buttons can be used as brooches or as decorative hangings and of course to fasten clothes!

All materials will be provided, but if you have some embroidery threads you would like to use, please bring them along. There will be a small charge for the resources used.

The course runs from 10am-1pm on July 23rd, and costs £12 per person (excluding the cost of materials).

To book call the Arts Centre on 01460 54973.

New train to get a name

Unique new Loco at Peco to be named by rail enthusiast and BBC News Correspondent Ben Ando

JOHN MACDOUGALL, Chief Mechanical Engineer of the Beer Heights Lights Railway, has been designing and constructing since the winter of 2011, a special internal combustion engine, code named "Mini".

This locomotive is primarily being built to replace Pecorama's ageing Severn Lamb built diesel Jimmy, which is being phased into retirement. "Mini" is designed to offer much greater power and driver comfort than Jimmy as well as being considerably quieter in operation and to that end, the power unit selected is a mini motor car 998 cc petrol engine incorporating an automatic transmission.

Sir Alec Issigonis, designer of the classic Mini way back in 1959, developed an engine and gearbox combination so compact as to fit transversely in the first really small, economical and affordable modern front wheel drive car of its kind. He would never have guessed that all these years later, it would also prove ideal for our new locomotive, for it so happens to fit neatly within the available bonnet space. In this instance, of course, the engine is fitted longitudinally. But "petrol engine" I hear you say? Well, actually, the plan is to convert it to run on LPG, or Auto gas, giving it greener credentials and making it cheaper to run than a conventional petrol machine. The beauty of the petrol engine is that it is very quiet compared to a diesel, as well as being simple and reliable. Parts are also very cheap and easy to obtain.

The new loco' was mechanically complete early in the summer of 2014 and underwent trials during that season and occasionally was pressed into service on passenger duties for several hours at a time, due to unexpected demand or problems with another locomotive. So far, it has performed faultlessly and proved surprisingly popular with visitors as they were, unusually, able to see all the working "innards" of the machine running without its body panelling!

"Our new locomotive will put the 'eco' into Pecorama! It will run on liquid petroleum gas and a bi-product of petrol distillation and gives off only a fraction of the harmful emissions of conventional diesel and petrol engines" said CME of the Beer Heights Light Railway John Macdougall.

The loco is now complete with bodywork and will be painted and polished, ready for Sunday the 30th of August when the Naming Ceremony will take place.

BBC News Correspondent Ben Ando, a railway enthusiast, will perform the unveiling as part of the week-long series of railway events, celebrating 40 years of the Beer Heights Light Railway.

Celebrations will take place Monday 24th - Monday, August 31st and further information can be found on our website: www.pecorama.info

Craft Day at Axminster Arts Café

AXMINSTER Arts is holding a Craft Day at the Arts Café in Church Street on Thursday, July 23rd from 12.30 – 3.00. Crafts on display will include garden sculptures, small scale willow, textiles including quilts, pottery, jewellery, knitting and lace making. Some, but not all, of the crafts will be on sale. Come along and talk to the artisans about their hobbies and see what they have made: admission is free.

The Axminster Arts Café is housed in part of the Old Courthouse: a special piece of Axminster's heritage and will be open from 9.00 – 3.00 on that day. A warm welcome by the staff is assured, so why not treat yourself to a drink and a tasty lunch or snack too. Gluten-free bread and cakes as well as soya milk are always available. Dogs on leads are welcome in the courtyard garden, where there is also plenty of space for cyclists' bikes. The walled garden is looking lovely at this time of year and is a real sun trap, providing a tranquil haven right in the centre of Axminster. Free Music in the Garden events are taking place every Saturday morning from 11.00 – 1.00, throughout the summer.

Ilminster sings the blues

WHEN ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE saw that one of the last of the Louisiana bluesmen, L'il Jimmy Reed was planning a tour of Europe, they lost no time at all in booking the musical legend to be part of their concert programme in July. "Opportunities like this don't come along very often, and when they do you have to grab them with both hands!" a spokesman for the Arts Centre says.

Born Leon Atkins in Baton Rouge, L'il Jimmy Reed taught himself to play guitar as a child, playing by ear; the story goes that his father bought him a guitar one Monday, and by Saturday he was out gigging. His lucky break came one night when he was a teenager and he replaced a well-known star – and one of his musical heroes – Jimmy Reed, who failed to show for a performance. Thus "Little" Jimmy Reed was born and over the years he has worked and played with a "who's who" of bluesmen including Bobby Bland, Ike Turner, Little Milton, Willie Clayton, and Otis Grand.

Now his eighties, L'il Jimmy's performances defy his years, as he channels the soul of blues icons Lightnin' Slim, Muddy Waters and of course, his namesake, the legendary Jimmy Reed.

This concert will be an amazing chance to hear authentic Southern blues in the intimate setting of the Arts Centre, performed by a living link to the musical origins of 60s bands such as The Rolling Stones, Alexis Korner and John Mayall.

L'il Jimmy Reed is supported by a group of accomplished musicians, who are highly distinguished in their own right. Playing with L'il Jimmy will be Bob Hall (widely acknowledged as one of Britain's finest blues and boogie pianists, and his partner Hilary Blythe (on vocals and bass).

L'il Jimmy Reed plays at Ilminster Arts Centre this Friday, July 17th at 8pm.

Tickets are £16, and a pre-show supper is available for £12 but must be booked in advance. For more details and to book call 01460 54973, or visit the website at www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

LAST LOUISIANA BLUESMAN | L'il Jimmy Reed

India Electric Co stride towards the big time

FROM A DEVONSHIRE barn to primetime Radio 2 and stages across Europe with Midge Ure, the two guys from India Electric Co. are being touted as the next big thing in the acoustic/folk music scene.

Made up of Cole Stacey (from Awliscombe) and Joseph O'Keefe (Talatun) they've been heralded as ones to watch by Jeremy Vine and given glowing 4 star reviews in The Telegraph and The Independent on Sunday. Their debut album recorded all in East Devon The Girl I Left Behind Me has gone to near the top of the iTunes and Amazon charts since it was released a month ago.

They recently performed a big slot at Glastonbury Festival and continue their tour alongside the legendary Midge Ure as his band and his support act. Having met in East Devon and grown up in the area they have used all their influences on their debut album including Gypsy Jazz, folk, pop and Eastern European folk.

"We're delighted people are listening and have been playing The Girl I Left Behind Me. There is a theme of transience throughout the album so it seemed apt that we were stuck on the m25 when we heard it on Radio 2 for the first time" said Cole.

They will be touring throughout Germany on The Breathe Again Tour later in the year with Midge Ure stating that "their vast range of musical textures instantly stood out" being a reason he chose them to accompany him. The Girl I Left Behind Me is being tipped for even bigger things as India Electric Co. continue to keep the WestCountry firmly on the musical map.

Dining out in East Devon & South Somerset Bilbys Coffee Shop

Delicious handmade cakes and more at Bilbys

BILBYS opened 14 years ago in the Red Lion Hotel, which, when it was taken over by Jane and Tris Pinkney, had been empty and derelict for nine years. They fell in love with the building and spend three months renovating and repairing the building while still trying to save its character.

During the war the Red Lion Hotel hosted Field Marshall Montgomery for a few nights just before D-Day and Sir Ralph Reader would often perform in its banquet suite.

Bilbys Coffee shop was named after Jane's Great grandfather Robert Bilby Little who was a vicar in Standon in Hertfordshire. Bilby is an unusual name but it has connections with Crewkerne. The Bells in the local church were cast by the Bilbies family a strange bunch from Chew Stoke who would only cast bells by the light of a full moon (probably because it would take all day to melt the brass and they needed the light of the moon to see to cast the bell!).

Bilbys serve light lunches, all day breakfasts, teas, coffees and cakes. All the cakes are made by Jane at Bilbys. She is particularly proud of her Somerset apple cake which is great served warm but even better served with clotted cream.

From early afternoon they also have afternoon tea which consists of a choice of sandwiches, a mixture small cakes, scones, jam and cream and of course a pot of tea.

They have a private meeting room that can be hired and they also do outside functions.

Jane and Tris have a full list of allergens and can cater for most dietary requirements. Bilbys has a five star rating for food hygiene.

Bilbys has now entered the modern world and can now take cards.

Jane uses many old recipes some like her ginger shortbread and old Ma's fruitcake passed to her from her mother and grandmother and she has started to teach her Granddaughter Isla (2 years old) to bake cakes at home so the next generation is on its way. She also makes pre ordered celebration cakes, for birthdays and special events.

Jane and Tris say "We couldn't do all this without the help of our great staff, some have been with us for as long as we've been here"

The atmosphere at Bilbys is great with a mixture of young and old customers and families are very welcome.

If you're in a hurry sandwiches and drinks can be made for takeaway.

If you are in Crewkerne and you want a tea, coffee or a bite to eat then come to Bilbys Coffee shop in the heart of your Town.

Dynamic Duet

TWO of Scotland's top jazz artists, saxophonist Tommy Smith and pianist Brian Kellock, are paying their first visit to Ilminster Arts Centre, to showcase the duet format in all its glory. With only two musicians on stage, the jazz duet is a fantastic format for hearing the structure, clarity and beauty of the music as it is played.

This will be an evening of accessible, enjoyable music, centred around the great American and European song book, featuring such classics as Parker 51 (Stan Getz), Moonlight Serenade (Glen Miller), It Could Happen To You (Jimmy Van Heusen) Armando's Rhumba (Chick Corea), Warm Valley (Duke Ellington), Moose The Mooche (Charlie Parker) and Stardust (Hoagy Carmichael).

Critics have described Smith & Kellock's playing as "exquisite", "sheer artistry" and "luxuriously rich". The dynamic duo is renowned for its world-class musicianship, natural rapport, easy charm and ready wit, and has captivated audiences from Montreal to Edinburgh and beyond; now it's Ilminster's turn to hear them in action!

Tommy Smith and Brian Kellock play at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, July 24th at 8pm. Tickets are £16 and a pre-show supper is available for £12 (must be pre-booked). # Summer Holidays

Osprey Leisure Centre

Osprey Leisure Centre Summer Kid's Club 2015

THIS school holiday Osprey Leisure Centre has programmed the usual variety of popular activities for kids aged 5 - 14 years from 20 July through to 28 August.

Amongst the usual mix of activity days Osprey is now offering an indoor football academy on Tuesdays and Thursdays which when added to the half day multi activity sessions on the same day give 2 extra full days from 9am - 4pm which have recently been added to the programme earlier in the year.

Many children love using the inflatable obstacle course during private pool parties but have the rare chance to attend the junior sessions for the over 9's which take place on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2pm - 4pm for only £3 per child for a full 2 hours.

Now that the Legacy Cafe is open parents have the chance to add a lunch for only £2.50 to the day so another worry is taken away from them.

The Tunnel Target Sports Centre

THIS year The Tunnel Target Sports Centre celebrates its fifth year of business. The indoor rifle range complex still boasts some of the best range facilities open to the public in the UK.

The Tunnel offers shooting experiences to the general public, as well as members of their home office approved club alike. Whether you are a total novice or an experienced shot, there is something on offer for all ages and abilities.

The complex of indoor ranges comprises 25m and 35m small-bore ranges, as well as a 100m full-bore range, along with a number of newly finished classrooms.

All staff members at The Tunnel are fully qualified NSRA and NRA range officers, which means you can be sure that a consistent standard of excellence is maintained throughout the Centre. Along with the quality of staffing, The Tunnel prides itself on being affiliated to The National Rifle Association at Bisley, and aims to provide an all-round outstanding service for air-gun, small-bore and full-bore shooting.

The Tunnel offers training facilities for many different applications, from those who want to demonstrate or improve their skills and knowledge for application of their Firearms Certificate with 'Competent shot', or Quality Assured Maritime Firearm Competency Courses with Maritime Firearms Competency Ltd. As well as these, The Tunnel plays host to The South West Rifle and Pistol squad (SWRPS). SWRPS is a regional talent training academy that has a proven track record of success with many of their current and former athletes, leading to the fact that The Tunnel has recently had the training for the elite Team GB pistol shooting squad reinstated. Members of this squad have been as successful as competing in Olympic Games and World Championships.

For those who may be accompanying shooters, but who do not themselves wish to shoot, The Tunnel has observation rooms from which they can watch, while enjoying a tea or coffee from the Centre's on site cafe.

The Tunnel has managed to add something new every year, most recently the opening of the 100m indoor full-bore range. This year however sees The Tunnel begin offering archery taster sessions for beginners.

Hands on with Max's friendly fish

IT may be more humble than the multi-million pound attractions you find in many resorts, but the charm and hands-on experience of Lyme Regis Marine Aquarium has won over visitors time and time again.

Situated on Lyme's historic Cobb wall, the Marine Aquarium was first opened in 1958 by Lyme businessman Oliver Farnworth, who ran it until 1982 when local fisherman and historian Ken Gollop took over the popular attraction. His nephew Max took on the family business in 2001 and has since created a huge online following.

Most recently, the aquarium has been recognised in the TripAdvisor "Hall of Fame", which honours establishments that have received the TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence of five consecutive years thanks to continuous excellent reviews on the travel website. Winners include hotels, restaurants and attractions located all over the world that have continually delivered a superior customer experience.

"Being awarded the TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence five years in a row and inducted into the 'Hall of Fame' is a true source of pride for the entire team at Lyme Regis Marine Aquarium and we'd like to thank all of our past visitors who took the time to complete a review on TripAdvisor," said Max.

Traveller's Choice Awards, with only The Deep in Kingston-Upon-Hull and the National Marine Aquarium in Plymouth ranking higher – both huge, multi-million pound establishments compared to Lyme's more modest alternative, which shows off the marine life of the Jurassic Coast.

Max believes the secret to the aquarium's success is the interactive element of a visit, with the star attractions including the opportunity to hold a starfish or hand-feed Max's trained shoal of grey mullet.

"We constantly strive to offer a great experience for all our visitors," he said.

"We differentiate ourselves from our larger aquarium counterparts by offering an interactive and tactile dimension to a visit. Not only do visitors get to see the marine life which can be found in local waters, they have the opportunity to hold a starfish in the palm of their hand and have their picture taken while being up close with a giant lobster or crab.

"Our mullet feeding experience is truly unique where visitors lower their clenched hand containing food into a large tank of grey mullet, then marvel as these wonderfully tame creatures gently suck and 'kiss' as they take food directly from the hand.

"We also go that extra mile to make all visitors feel welcome and provide a personal service with either myself or one of my knowledgeable staff being available to answer any questions and give further insight into the creatures on display."

As well as exploring the local marine life, visitors to the aquarium will learn a little about Lyme's rich history.

The building itself dates back to 1723 and, before this, a house named Rose Cottage stood in its place from 1701 until it was destroyed in a storm.

As Lyme was a busy port at the time, attracting trade from all over the world, the building was originally used as a warehouse and store, and later went on to be an isolation hospital to prevent those arriving on ships from spreading diseases such as cholera, typhus and the plague around the town.

The attraction also celebrates the town's more recent history, with a display of photographs taken when Lyme was transformed for the filming of "The French Lieutenant's Woman" in the 1980s.

Eden Garden Developments

GIVEN today's intensive land-use practices, gardens have become refuges for wildlife. However their conservation value is being eroded by planting inhospitable to British wildlife and flower types less suited to pollinators such as bees and butterflies.

Many birds rely on insects, a situation not helped by the disappearance of ponds, with the loss of habitat for fish, amphibians and invertebrates. There is also pressure on small garden mammals such as hedgehogs.

Eden Garden Developments, based in Beer, Seaton, Devon, supports biodiversity and because they have been designing and building gardens for some 15 years, they can do so utilizing their existing platform and skill set.

Whilst many gardeners are enthusiastic about wild life, they still want gardens to be attractive and easy to maintain. So the solution is to combine contemporary garden design with an understanding of the needs of wild life, appreciating that the two things are not mutually exclusive. For example, Salvias are great sources of nectar and there is a huge range to choose from.

Further information can be obtained by calling Norman Brown MSc.(Environmental Planning & Management) on 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or by visiting the web pages at a1-environmental.com.

Land Rover delivers the Webb Ellis Cup to Devon

IN THE build-up to Rugby World Cup 2015, Land Rover helped to bring a taste of the highly anticipated global Tournament to Devon.

As part of a 100 day tour of the UK and Ireland, organised by England Rugby 2015, local Land Rover customers and media were invited to Land Rover Experience West Country in Honiton to get a closer look at the sought-after Webb Ellis Cup and the unique Trophy Tour Defender.

Land Rover ambassador and Rugby World Cup 2003 winner, Lewis Moody, was also in attendance as he looks forward to seeing his home nation in action at Twickenham when the Tournament kicks-off in September. Speaking about England's chances, Moody said: "England definitely have a chance to win the World Cup, but it will be a big ask. Having Australia and Wales in your pool isn't ideal so it's important to play well and win the warm-up games so that they go into the tournament with confidence. The opportunity that these guys have is huge and I hope they take it because the nation will get behind them with every ounce of their being."

The visit to the West Country marks the quarter stage of the 100 day tour, which has already seen the Webb Ellis Cup being transported through Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland, and Wales, in the custom-built Land Rover Defender. The Defender took nearly 6,000 hours to design and was built at Land Rover's Special Vehicle Operations base in the West Midlands.

So far on its Tour, the vehicle and the famous Trophy have already visited Scotland, Ireland and Wales, travelling over 2,500 miles to give thousands of people of all ages the chance to see the most coveted prize in Rugby.

The Tour will continue to excite fans in the run-up to the Tournament, incorporating visits to over 300 events including rugby clubs, schools, community festivals and iconic landmarks. Travelling approximately 9,000 miles during the Tour, the Defender and Webb Ellis Cup will endeavour to inspire the nation and leave a lasting legacy of Rugby World Cup 2015.

Moody has also been involved with Land Rover's 'We Deal In Real' Rugby World Cup 2015 campaign, which celebrates grassroots rugby in the UK and around the world. As part of Land Rover's activity the Rugby World Cup 2003 winner has been helping to give youngsters aged between seven and 13-years-old the once in a lifetime opportunity of being one of 96 Rugby World Cup 2015 mascots.

Significantly enhanced Ford EcoSport compact and fuel-efficient SUV

THE enhanced Ford EcoSport SUV, offering styling upgrades, improved driving dynamics and new equipment is available to order for October delivery.

Customers can now specify the EcoSport compact SUV with-out a rear-mounted spare wheel. Interior improvements include standard partial leather seats for Titanium models and additional chrome detailing.

Convenience and comfort are also enhanced with a Winter Pack – featuring heated windscreen, heated mirrors and heated front seats. EcoSport driving dynamics have been improved with revisions to the springs, dampers, rear torsion beam, Electronic Stability Programme, and Electronic Power Assisted Steering settings.

Prices for the enhanced EcoSport, available with Ford's multi-award-winning 1.0-litre EcoBoost petrol engine, 1.5-litre petrol engine or 1.5-litre TDCi diesel engine, start from £14,245.

"The stylish and practical Ford EcoSport offers customers a flexible and economical SUV and with these enhancements EcoSport looks and feels even sharper," said Joe Bakaj, vice president, Product Development, Ford of Europe. "EcoSport was developed in some of the most rigorous terrains and climates across the globe to make it an even more compelling option for customers as part of our growing European SUV range. In addition, the team at Lommel Proving Ground in Belgium have further enhanced the driving dynamics to make the new EcoSport even more fun to drive on European roads."

Ford EcoSport models specified without the rear-mounted spare wheel feature a tyre mobility kit as standard, while the rear swing-gate design for those vehicles also has been revised to allow easier access to the bootspace with partial opening. All models now feature a distinctive EcoSport badge on the rear.

Inside, partial leather seats are offered as standard on Titanium models, privacy glass is available for all EcoSport trim levels, while the Winter Pack also adds rear seat ventilation at floor level to improve comfort for rear passengers in cold weather.

The restyled interior has a charcoal black lower instrument panel, centre console and door boards. The instrument cluster now features a light dimming function and chrome-surround rings to match the electric window switches.

All EcoSport models are equipped with Ford's SYNC voice-controlled connectivity system feature a 4-inch colour display in the centre console.

New Avensis Majors on Comfort and Costs

THE new Toyota Avensis has been designed to be a strong performer in the business car and fleet market, not just in terms of running costs but also in providing the kind of comfort and on-board technologies that make life easier for the longer-distance driver. With fleet and business customers expected to account for around 87 per cent of all new Avensis sales, achieving the right balance of cost-efficiency, performance and quality has been crucial.

Comfort

Toyota canvassed the opinions of motorists – not just Toyota drivers – in its development of new Avensis, helping it better understand and respond to the real-world needs and preferences of business people who spend long periods at the wheel.

As a result, the new Avensis range of saloons and Touring Sports wagons – all built in Britain – has two equipment grades that focus on the things that make life more comfortable, convenient and connected for today's business motorist.

The Avensis Business Edition is positioned to appeal at the heart of the fleet market. It comes equipped with Toyota Touch 2 with Go, a fast and intuitive eight-inch touchscreen-controlled multimedia package that includes navigation, Bluetooth, DAB and access to online services for local information and journey planning. Cruise control, automatic air conditioning and automatic headlights and wipers also help take the stress out of driving.

Business Edition Plus models are tailored for the user-chooser, adding combination leather and Alcantara upholstery, LED headlights and daytime running lights, rear privacy glass and smart entry with push-button start.

All models benefit from a redesigned driver's seat that gives extra support and comfort for long distance trips, with electrically adjustable lumbar support provided on both Business Edition grades. Improved NVH measures also make the cabin a much quieter and calmer place.

Insurance

The introduction of the Toyota Safety Sense package of safety features has had a significant impact on new Avensis's insurance ratings, with improvements of up to five groups achieved compared to the previous model. This means Avensis now equals the best in its class in terms of insurance costs, with the added benefit of Toyota's advanced technologies to help prevent accidents happening.

Toyota Safety Sense provides a laser-controlled Pre-Crash Safety system with Autonomous Emergency Braking; on all Avensis models apart from the entry-level Active, it also equips the car with Automatic High Beam headlights, Road Sign Assist and Lane Departure Alert.

Drivers Unprepared For A Host Of Rule Changes On The Roads In 2015, Warns IAM

THE Institute of Advanced Motorists (IAM) is warning people to be ready for a host of changes coming up in driving laws in the UK – and fear many are totally unaware of what's in store in 2015.

New regulations that have changed driving licences, drug-drive limits and speed limits have already taken place in 2015. There are, however, other changes expected to take place later in the year.

For motorists oblivious to these changes, the IAM is raising awareness to ensure all road users understand the new driving laws and changes.

In March a new law on driving under the influence of legal or illegal drugs including cannabis and cocaine and prescription drugs including diazepam, methadone and morphine came into force across England and Wales.

Earlier this month, the IAM revealed the true scale of drug-driving since the new regulations started and found 902 arrests have already been made by police forces (1). Motorists convicted of drug-driving will get a minimum one year driving ban, unlimited fine, up to six months imprisonment and a criminal record (2).

In April, the speed limit for the largest heavy goods vehicles (HGVs) travelling on a single carriageway across England and Wales increased from 40mph to 50mph, and on a dual carriageway it has increased from 50mph to 60mph (3).

Changes to driving laws and other related procedural changes have also come into force this year to take advantage of the internet, increase convenience and save time on administration.

From the government's launch of the 'Make a Plea' service in March, which enables motorists charged with minor motoring offences including speeding, failing to identify the driver or using a vehicle without insurance to respond to the charges made against them digitally (4), to the scrapping of the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency (DVLA) paper counterpart of the photo card on 8 June, in which all driver information such as endorsements and which category of vehicles you are entitled to drive is stored electronically – the changes have allowed motorists to access information remotely. Important changes have also come into force with how motorists provide proof of their driving records to a third party and will need to obtain a special code from on-line to allow sharing of data (5).

No more slips up if Honiton want promotion EARLY WICKETS NOT ENOUGH TO BEAT CHARDSTOCK

CRICKET ROUND-UP

Honiton 1st XI vs Chardstock 1st XI

HAVING lost the toss Honiton started in the field. Two early wickets for Ben Kidson kept the opposition in check. Tansley bowled well though couldn't pick up the wicket he was hoping for!

Joe Dixon picked up three wickets including the important wicket of skipper Hutchings. The star bowler for Honiton was Adrian Pullin who picked up four wickets from his nine overs to help them restrict Chardstock to 212-9.

Honiton felt it was a gettable total but wickets kept falling regularly. Pete Matravers batted through for an excellent 81no but no one stuck with him and Honiton finishing on 174 all out.

Ingram said following the game: "After a good performance in the field we were hoping to follow it with the bat but we let ourselves down. If we want to get promotion now, then there can be no more slip ups!"

Honiton 2nd XI vs Thorverton 3rd XI

HONITON took to the field for the first time since the defeat to Feniton, and despite being a couple regulars short knew that a full house 20 points would take them top of the table.

Batting first Honiton's new opening pair of Pete Beighton (40) and captain Andrew Lapping (50) got the team off to a flyer putting on 104 for the opening wicket.

Once they had departed Kieran Conway added 33, but then Thorverton made inroads through the home side's line-up and eventually had them all out for 203.

In reply Thorverton lost a couple early wickets to the bowling of Richard Hill and Andy Brinsford and they never really got going as spinners Ian Kelly 3 for 23 and Will Cowley 2 for 39.

It was then left to Brinsford 2 for 14 and Hill to polish off the tail. Hill's final figures were 6.4 overs, 5 maidens, 1 run and 2 wickets.

Skipper Lapping was pleased, saying: "It was good to get back to playing and picking up the win. After results last week we have now gone top, but getting there is one thing – staying there will be even harder."

"We seem to have the players to keep grinding out results and we have a lot of hard work ahead if we are to reach our target."

HONITON RETURN TO WINNING WAYS

HONITON with Julie Grant
WINNING ways returned for Honiton bowlers in their mixed friendlies.

They claimed victories over Crewkerne 75-49, top rink Yvonne Williams, Fred Cowey and Jimmy Smith 26-11, and against Taunton Vivary 72-47, top rink Joan Mackintosh, Di Hawkins, Tony Williams, and Scott Eveleigh 38-7.

In the county competition for mixed triples Yvonne Rayner, Tony Tooley and Trevor Pipe have won Section Three and will play the quarter final against the winners of Section Six later in the season.

The men's Over 60s triples have had ups and downs in their leagues. The A team lost to Tiverton West End 31-37 but with a winning rink of Mike Uniacke, Tony Williams and Gerry Stafrace 22-19. The B team won against Heavitree 40-36 securing seven points and against Exonia they battled to a memorable win securing all eight points with a 36-32 victory to challenge for the top of their division.

In the Two Counties League the up was a win over Ottery 77-72 but there were downs when losing to Feniton 66-81 and Seaton 71-78.

Finally congratulations to a team from Ottery St Mary who won the Howard Cottrell trophy. Sharon Kenny, Kevin Vernon, Tony Bushell and Mollie Parker won the tournament when seven clubs competed against Honiton rubins in an afternoon of enjoyable bowls.

SEATON with Maria Johnson
OUR week started with a friendly match against Charmouth, where we were able to win on all three rinks. Our top rink was J. Derbyshire, L. Hurley-Smith, B. Scull, P. Griggs.

On Tuesday Seaton played an away game against Culm Vale in the TCL.

We were unfortunate and lost the game 84 to 67; our best rink was L. Hurley-Smith, T. Hurley-Smith, R. Rowley and R. Woodland.

Wednesday we played two matches - in the Men's Over 60s versus Heavitree we took all eight points, winning on both rinks.

Our best rink was P. Newton, R. Rowley and skipped by L. Toose. We also played Belmont we lost on both rinks 39 to 16.

We had a very good win on Wednesday when we played Crediton Yellow on their home turf, the end score was 47-27.

We won on both rinks and our top rink was M. Vessey, L. Stone and D. Morley.

On July 9th we played a friendly at Sidmouth which we lost 80 to 66. The top rink for Seaton was H. Sillier, E. Talbot, L. Hurley-Smith and R. Pluck. The Ladies Over 50s Triples League played Starcross at home and we were able to win 49 to 16. It was a much needed win and a great game.

On July 11th we played away at Chardstock in a lovely setting overlooking the cricket pitch.

It was great weather for playing bowls and we won on all three triples rinks, with and overall score of 63-40. Top rink: E. Keller, A. Joyner and H. Smith.

To finish our week off on Sunday we played a seven rink match against a tour from Purnells, a wonderful fun afternoon was had by all and the score at the finish was 138-135 to Seaton.

Our top rink was N. Stone, Dave

Toucans and Flamingos to play off to top spot

THE last week for Pool B and it's neck and neck at the top with both Toucans Chicks and Flamingos on 17 points but with Chicks having a superior goal difference it leaves Flamingos needing a 75 goal win to stand a chance of overtaking them.

As it happened they were not given the chance as Pixies failed for the second time this season to field a team meaning they forfeited the game to Flamingos who were given a 10 win.

This meant that Chicks had to win to finish top, and they were up against Ford & Pentecost Panthers.

With Rachel Burrow playing well for Panthers they slowly reduced their handicap deficit but the Chicks proved too resilient and they finished winners by 58-43 thanks to good play from Emily Rudolph.

Blackdown Ladies were playing for a top three spot when they met Hi Q.

Hi Q battled strongly against the Ladies but weren't able to overcome their deficit start and finished on the wrong end of the 42-47 scoreline.

Kirsty Selway played well for Blackdown whilst Jaz Chester was the Hi Q star.

Howden Hawks finished their campaign with a 59-39 win over JD Tyres, a win that saw them finish 5th. Helen Freemantle played well for JD whilst Ameerah Askew was the pick of the Hawks.

Big turnout for rail and river run

HONITON RC with Judy Davey

A RECORD number of runners took part in the Otter Rail and River Run last Saturday which starts and finishes in Tipton St John.

It is organised by Tipton Playing Field Committee and Sidmouth Running Club and is a 10k route which is almost as flat as it gets in East Devon.

Karl Hodson led Honiton Running Club home to finish

23rd in 41 minutes 55 seconds. He was followed by Steve Davey who finished 41st in 44.26 with Steve Selley hot on his heels; 5 places and 21 seconds later. Mark Dallyn struggled with this race finishing 63rd in 47.30. Mark Andow came 86th in 50.24 and Jim Hill was 105th in 53.26. Kathy Layzell and Sandra Thorpe finished together in 152nd place in 1:00:36 and Michelle Selley who has just started running again after injury completed the line up to come 179th in 1:05:09. James Denne won the race in a new course record of 34:33 and there were 215 finishers; an increase of 50% on last year.

Damp and warm conditions greeted the 100 runners that took part in Sunday's Bridport 10k. This tough off road event takes in the Jurassic coast path and due to fog on Thorncombe Beacon the Coastguard had advised the route be diverted at this point. This did not detract from what was a stunning run and by the time the runners reached Thorncombe the weather was clear

Two Honiton runners made the trip. Howard Bidmead had another good run in an event he enjoys and finished in 51m 07s.

Paula Ferris running in a Honiton vest for the first time enjoyed her run and was beaming when she crossed the line in 61m.

football yeovil town fc

TWO years after initially scrapping their academy plans, Yeovil Town FC have announced that their newly launched youth set-up looks set to be given top-level recognition.

The academy has been recommended for category 3 status on the Premier League's Elite Player Performance Plan (EPPP).

Newly appointed academy chairman Andy Rossiter has also announced that the club are to appoint former Torquay United head of youth Geoff Harrop as the academy director.

Geoff previously had successful spells with Colchester United, Rushden & Diamonds and Northampton Town, before restarting the youth development in Torquay in 2010.

Geoff said: "I am delighted that we have achieved category three status after all the hard work that has been put in behind the scenes over the past couple of months prior to my appointment.

"We now have players ranging from under 9s to under 18s signed up to the academy for the new season, and we have members of qualified staff ready to get going.

"We want to see young players in our first team who are developed through the academy and here at Yeovil Town they will be given every opportunity to impress."

John Evans, principal of Yeovil College, said: "Yeovil College is proud to be working in partnership with Yeovil Town Football Club again to deliver the educational studies for the new academy footballers.

"The programme is an excellent opportunity to develop the football stars of the future and to give a clear educational pathway for local and regional academy apprentices.

"The apprentices will be studying at the college for a day and a half working towards their Level Three BTEC qualification."

Mixed Section

ON JULY 5th there was a Mixed Open Greensome competition. The Mabs Baker Salver was also being contested that day and Cyril Dann from Honiton and his guest, Pat Jarvis from East Devon, were the winners.

Rye Foursomes was the format for this week's Tuesday mixed competition. Twenty-eight members played and the winners with 38 points were Jan Dickinson and Richard Pyle.

In second place were Elizabeth Wood and Cyril Dann with 36 pts on countback (the last three holes). Taking third and fourth places, also on 36 points were Jennifer Pyle and John Dickinson and then Sally Chapman and Keith Bellinger.

The prizes this week were presented by past club captain Terry Linsdell and the organisers for this month are Ro and Chris Poole.

Ladies Section

THIS week was the second Ladies Open competition of the year. As usual, it was a very popular event and 114 players, from 20 clubs in Devon, Dorset and Somerset, took part.

The format was a 321 competition with three scores to count on the first six holes, two scores on the next six holes and one score on the final six holes.

The winners with 72 points were Viv Worthington, Mary Fox and Shirley Mason from Exeter. A very attractive prize table had an unusual Christmas theme - 170 shopping days to go!

The caterers had also provided an excellent buffet and the Captain's Charity Hut at the 11th tee was supplying homemade scones to keep the spirits up between the showers.

Seniors Section

ANOTHER very popular Seniors Open competition welcomed 160 players from clubs around the South West.

Texas Scramble was the format of the day and Royal North Devon visitors had the winning score of 60.6. Home team Mike Watts (Seniors Captain) Jim Wallace and Tony Williams were hot on their heels with a score of 60.8

Honiton Seniors win back the Stan Parker Cup at last

THERE is an annual match between Exeter and Honiton which has been taking place since the mid 1970s.

The Stan Parker Cup is played home and away and has six teams (12 players). It was won in 2012 by Exeter and retained by them from that time because every match since then has been a draw.

This year the Seniors achieved a narrow 3 1/2 to 2 1/2 win at Exeter. Then, at the return match at Honiton, the team again won and so the final score was an 8 to 4 win, meaning the Cup has come back to Honiton at last.
